What is myfuture?

myfuture is Australia's free national career information and exploration service. It can help you make career decisions, plan your career pathways and manage work transitions.

myfuture includes six key sections:

- Getting started
- Change direction
- Assist your child
- Explore careers
- Tools and resources
- My career profile

Are you trying to work out which career pathway to take? Not sure where to start? Getting started is tailored to help you begin your career journey, by introducing you to the diversity of career pathways that are available, and supporting you in exploring occupations and study pathways that are right for you.

Are you considering a career change? Are you facing redundancy or returning to work after a long absence? Change direction helps you explore changes to your career journey, and supports you in making the most of your skills, knowledge and experience.

Assist your child helps parents and guardians support and encourage children with their career making decisions by introducing them to the world of work and helping them explore interests, skills and occupations.

Explore careers helps you to investigate occupations that best suit you and your career plan, and discover pathways that you might not have thought about.

Tools and resources features videos, activities and lesson plans to help others learn about careers, and choose possible occupations or career paths.
